

Post Assessment Work in Preparation for Final Term

Subject: History

Key Advice for Exam Preparation / Revision	In the next series of mocks, we will be assessing all of the assessment objectives across both papers: 1C – The Tudors – 1485 to 1603 – 2 hours 30 minutes 2Q – USA Reality & Illusion – 1945 to 1980 – 2 hours 30 minutes
Activities to complete	Revision activities and revisiting Year 12 material will feature as part of the 5 hours of directed homework each week, although students should also undertake their own independent revision based on any topics they feel require more focus.
Online Resources	Every student has access to the Files Section of Teams, where there is a wealth of revision materials, model answers and activities for you to use for free. Please discuss with Mr Curry if you are unsure how to access this material
Key Reading	You should utilise all of your textbooks in your revision. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Tudors: England 1485-1603 (Oxford A Level History for AQA) by Michael Tillbrook and Sally Waller• England 1485–1603 by Derrick Murphy , Allan Keen, et al.• The American Dream: Reality and Illusion 1945-1980 (Oxford A Level History for AQA) by Sally Waller and Mark Stacey• United States 1776–1992 by Derrick Murphy , Kathryn Cooper, et al.
Link to Exam Board Past Papers	1C – The Tudors - AQA 2Q – The USA Reality & Illusion - AQA AQA Resources Past Papers & AQA Mark Schemes
Other	For revision, students should also utilise the notes contained within their own files and the advice on essay structure they have been given.